OFFICIANT SERVICES

How do you say I love you?

When we speak of love, we each say I love you in so many different ways; not always with words but more often with actions. But the more ways you two express it, the more you understand it. You practice it and you make it apart of your lives. You see, the love that you two share is unique to you and it is a love that has never before existed in your hearts.

Our wedding officiant will create a ceremony that is unique to both of you and share your love story and unique love language with your guests for a one of a kind wedding ceremony.
